SAM ROI YOD AND KUI BURI NATIONAL PARKS

Sam Roi Yod means 300 peaks, which describes the landscape of the park quite well.

Two white sand beaches are located within the park namely Hat Laem Sala and Hat Sam Phraya.

Rare animals in the park include the mainland serow (Nemorhaedus sumatraensis), dusky langurs (Trachypithecus obscurus), as well as many bird species.

Khao Daeng boat ride takes you through the beautiful landscape. After visiting Sam Roi Yod Nationalpark we go to Kui Buri National Park and hopefully see wild elephants.

Other animals you might meet on your tour in this park are Gaurs, Golden Jackals and Deers amongst others.

Elephants come down from the mountains during afternoons, so this tour starts a little late.

From 1.00pm until 6.00pm

1,250.- THB PER PERSON

Entrance fee THB 300 extra must be paid at each National Park.

Elephant Truck 800.- THB

must be paid extra at each National Park and can be shared by maximum 8 persons.

HUA HIN HILLS VINEYARD, HUAY MONGKOL TEMPLE AND PALA-U WATERFALL

We start at the Pala-U Waterfall and walk through unspoiled rainforest to the third level.

At this level you owe yourself a refreshing swim in the natural pool.

Remember to wear comfortable shoes.

From there we go to the Wine Yard. The concept of growing winemaking grapes in the 14th and 18th latitudinal parallels has become known as "New Latitude Wines". We suggest you enjoy the package including Elephant ride to see the grape fields, delicious Tapas Lunch, Wine tasting, refreshment and small souvenir bag at extra cost THB 1,400.- per. person. Must be booked at same time as the tour.

After this relaxing time we continue to the Huay Mongkol Temple, where you will see a gigantic statue of a sitting monk and you will get the chance to participate in Buddhist rituals.

If time allows we will visit the Hutsadin Elephant Foundation on the way back.

PALA-U WATERFALL AND HUTSADIN ELEPHANT FOUNDATION

The Pala-U Waterfall is located in the rainforest and has 16 levels that make this waterfall one of Thailand's largest. On the way up you will walk through unspoiled rainforest and maybe meet some locals from the Karen village. It should be noted however, that progressing further than the third stage will be difficult and risky and should only be attempted by those fit enough. Remember to wear comfortable clothes and shoes, bring swim suit, water and some snack. On the way back we will visit Hutsadin Elephant Foundation where its possible to do elephant trekking.

From 8.00am until 3.00pm

1,600.- THB per person

National Park entrance fee THB 300 extra must be paid at the location and Elephant Trekking at

FOR ART'S SAKE AND CICADA/TAMARIN MARKET

For Art's Sake is the best place to go exploring and get your camera fired up, because you'll have to see it with your own eyes to believe it!

This 4D exhibit offers 10 different art themes and zones. You'll see themes from Imagination, Childhood, and Horror Zones or explore the Mirror Climb, Piano Stairs, Illusion Windows, Highlight Room, and many more. From optical illusions to sound and digital effects that baffle the senses, you'll find yourself responding to an exhibit that reacts right back to you!

Entrance fee: 300.- THB per adult - 200.- THB per child

Cicada Market is easily Hua Hin's most popular weekend night market. Unlike most night markets in Thailand this one is a little different it's more organised, offers a great variety of fresh foods and local crafts. Tamarind Market is really an extension of Cicada night market. It's located directly across the street from it and most people meander between the two markets. The market is aptly due to the numerous tamarind trees lining the park.

2.00AM until 9.00PM - 2,200.- THB Per Person

All prices are per person based on minimum four persons. If less than four persons surcharges will apply. Please ask in the reception.

SUNSET TOUR ON THE LOTUS SWAMP

The Lotus Swamp is situated over an area of approximately 500 rai in the freshwater marshland of Sam Roi Yot National Park.

You will come accross countless kinds of aquatic flora by boat.

Wide assortment of reeds and bulrushes, as well as a diverse variety of birdlife will be a part of a beautiful experience. There are also many strains of lotus, including water lilies.

The best time to visit the lotus swamp will be during April, which is the period when most of the lotuses are in full bloom.

There are also up to 296 different species of local and migratory birds to be found, including the purple heron, lesser whistling duck, garganey, little ringed plover, marsh sandpiper, rufous-necked stint, Eastern curlew, Asiatic dowitcher, etc.

The ideal time for observing the migratory birds is between November and February. We will end the day at the local "bar" and enjoy a little refreshment and a beautiful sunset.
